LIBEL FOR DIVORCE.

LONA M. PITRIN STATE OF VERMONT,

WH. W. FITRAN COUNTY, SR.

In County Court, September Term, 1907.

Whereas, Lona M. Pitkin of Barre, in the County of Washington, has this day filed in the office of the Cierk of said Court her libel for divorce against William W. Pitkin of parts unknown, setting forth in sucstance, that she was lawfully married to the said William W. Pitkin at Marsheled, in the County of Washington, and State of Vermont, on the 11th day of December, A.D. 1830 that she on her part had faithfully kept the marriage covenant, and performed all the duties apportaining thereto; but that the said libelies on his part had not kept the marriage covenant but had violated the same; for that the said libelies during said coverture for three conscentive years had wilfully described the libeliant, and being of sufficient pecuriary and physical ability, had, without cause, grossly, wantonly and cruelly refused and neglected to provide suitable maintenance for the libeliant; and praying that, for the causes afcressaid, the Court would grant her a divorce from the said Wm. W. Pitkin, also praying for alinony and for the custody of her miner children. And whereas, it is made to appear that the said William W. Pitkin resides and is without this State, where service of the process of this Court cannot be made upon him, therefore it is ordered that the said Wm. W. Pitkin be given notice of the pendency of said tibel, given opportunity to make defence therein and summoned to The City Council have placed in my hands for collection a tax bill amounting to two dol-lars and fifty-nine cents on a dollar of the grand list of the City and forty days from the date of this notice, viz: August 10th, 1207, As the limit of time in whice you have to pay the same to me.

that the said Wm. W.
